

Parkinson's Awareness Association of Central Indiana
(PAACI) and Young Parkinsons of Indiana (YPI) present the:

11th Annual Parkinson's Symposium
Saturday, August 18, 2007

Learn more about managing Parkinson's disease and meet others dealing with this disease.

---

Guest Speaker: Dr. Thyagarajan Subramanian, M.D.
Co-director of the Movement Disorders Program at Penn State Milton S. Hershey Medical Center

Topic: "Cell Transplantation and Gene Therapy"

---

"Dr Subramanian is highly regarded for his research in the field of movement disorders, as well as for his clinical expertise".

---

Agenda also includes PAACI research grant recipient Bridget Walsh, Dr. Joanne Wojcieszek an exercise break, a panel discussion with a question and answer period and various sponsors and vendors..

When: Saturday, August 18, 2007
1pm to 5pm (doors open at noon)

Location: Wayne Township Emergency Services Bldg
ESEC Conference Center
400 N. High School Road
Indianapolis, IN 46214

Fee: $15 per person, $5 discount for dues paying PAACI members

Register by calling the Parkinson's Awareness Association of Central
Indiana (PAACI), 317-255-1993

PAACI is a 501(c)3 tax-deductible organization that assists Parkinsonian's, their family and caregivers through education, exercise programs, and supportive services.